

Consider Diamond Jubilee For Antioch

Whether or not Antioch will celebrate its 75th year as an incorporated village will be decided within the next few weeks. Also to be decided is whether the celebration will be locally planned or whether the services of a celebration management firm will be used.

A preliminary meeting of civic and business leaders last Wednesday night at the village hall considered the possibilities, and heard an explanation of the role of the celebration management firm from Sid Eckdale of Rogers Co.

Rogers Co., Eckdale explained, would make a preliminary survey of the town, if their services are employed, and determine the size and scope of the celebration which would be practical. From information compiled in their years of managing such affairs, they would lay out guidelines for the Jubilee committee and give them the material to work with.

They would supply a consultant to advise committee members in decision-making. However, the celebration would be locally managed and local people would participate in all activities planned.

For their services, Rogers Co. would charge a flat fee, rather than the percentage system employed by fundraising professionals. No specific costs were mentioned in the preliminary presentation.

Eckdale outlined the benefits of a properly planned community celebration as follows: (1) Create new civic awareness among citizens; (2) uncover new civic leaders;

(3) stimulate local economy; (4) honor our heritage, and (5) focus attention on tomorrow.

One of the big problems in community life today, Eckdale pointed out, is loss of neighborliness. An historical celebration, he said, provides everyone in the community with a chance to participate, and brings an awakening of the neighborly attitude and civic pride. As small a thing, he remarked, as a man's decision to grow a beard or mustache for the Diamond Jubilee makes him a participant in the celebration and gives him a feeling of fellowship with others in the community.

While learning some of the history of their community during the historical celebration, Eckdale said, the people of the community become receptive to change, and civic projects can be planned and carried through that might "flop" in a different atmosphere.

William Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch, said that he felt such civic celebrations benefited the community, and asked Mayor Ray Toft if the village board were in favor of the affair. Toft said that in preliminary discussions there was a favorable attitude to the undertaking.

Mayor Toft suggested that a meeting be held of those who were present at the first meeting, without Mr. Eckdale, to decide whether or not to employ the Rogers Co. On Eckdale's advice, further meetings on the subject will be deferred until after January 1 so as not to interfere with the holiday season.

Antioch was incorporated as a village on February 20, 1892.

Lucky Balloon In Ohio

Several hundred balloons, some of them carrying gift certificates, were released by the First National Bank last Wednesday as part of their Grand Opening celebration. The bank was notified of the discovery of one of the downed balloons in a letter written Dec. 2 (Friday) by Raymond R. Kohli, Allen County engineer in Lima, Ohio. Two of his men, he said, Vernon Fricke and Dewey Hooker, had found one of the deflated balloons hanging on a fence, with the gift certificate still attached. The Lucky Balloon carried a certificate for $3.00, redeemable by bringing the certificate to the bank.

Neither man, the letter said, planned to travel to Antioch to collect on their lucky find.

On Honor Roll At Carmel High

Six students from Antioch are on the High Honor Roll at Carmel High School. They are Susan Pauletti, Robert Sedivec, Lynn Szymoniak, Susan Sedivec, Kirk Vistain and Julia Zannini.

Winning second honors on the Honor Roll are John Sanhamel, George Sedivec, Susan Schaefer, Richard Warsaw, James Griffin, Claudia Hallett, Judith Hevdejs, Christine Hunt, Gregory Shearman and John Newton.

A study of University of Illinois engineering graduates of 1956 reveals 36 per cent working in the state of Illinois.

FREE PARKING

Antioch shoppers will get free parking in the Antioch business districts from now until Christmas, courtesy of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and the village board.

Bags will be placed over the meters to notify shoppers of the free parking. A two-hour limit goes along with the free parking, to prevent shop owners and workers from parking all day.

Additional free parking is available this year in the new enlarged parking lot behind the stores on the west side of Main St. Entrance to the lot is on Broadway across from the village parking lot.

Santa Here Every Day

Santa Claus will be in residence in Antioch, to listen to the Christmas wishes of little folk and wish everyone a Merry Christmas, starting next Monday and every day, except Sunday, until Christmas.

Santa's headquarters will be in the former First National Bank at the corner of Lake and Main Sts. He'll be there from 5 till 8 p.m. every day, Monday through Saturday.

From 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., you may see Santa in any of the stores in town, as he roams through town visiting the different establishments and spreading Christmas cheer.

Santa's visit has been arranged through the courtesy of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and the First National Bank of Antioch.

Name Correspondent For Coed Magazine

Linda Weber, Central High School senior, has been named correspondent for Coed Magazine for the 1966-67 school year. The announcement was made by Miss Margaret Hauser, editor of Coed Magazine.

Miss Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Weber, was selected for her qualities of leadership and her enthusiasm for home economics, and will serve as junior adviser to the editors of Coed, national magazine for teenage girls. More than 4,000 Coed correspondents throughout the United States and Canada report regularly to the magazine on the interesting work they perform during the school year.

The program will contain many Christmas songs, also marches, overtures and novelties.

Kenneth Smouse will narrate the concert. George Ollisar is director of the band.

Injured In Crash

John Schockmel, superintendent of Grass Lake School, was injured last Wednesday (Nov. 30), in a three-car crash at Linden Plaza on Route 132.

Schockmel was taken to St. Therese Hospital after the crash. He is now at home and spending about two hours a day at his work at school.

Schockmel's car was behind an auto driven by Joyce Moran of Lake Villa as it was attempting to turn left into the shopping center. A third car, driven by B. Mildred Haisma of Lake Villa, crashed into the rear of Schockmel's car, pushing it into the Moran car.

Mrs. Haisma was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Art Contest For Children

All grade school children in the Lakes Region are invited to enter the art contest in conjunction with the Pallette Masque and Lyre production of "Rumpelstiltskin." The subject of the paintings must be about the story, or one of the characters in the play. It may be done in any medium you choose, pencil, pen, water colors, etc.

A best of show prize will be given, and there will be honorable mention ribbons awarded. All paintings awarded prizes will be on exhibit at the theater during the performances on Dec. 10, 11, 17, and 18. Bring your works to the Antioch Theater on Dec. 10, between 3 and 5 p.m., or between 7 and 8 p.m.

Death Takes Mrs. Nelson

Mrs. Vera S. Nelson, a resident of Antioch since 1925, died at 4:10 p.m. Friday, Dec. 2, in Victory Memorial Hospital after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Nelson is survived by her husband, S. Boyer Nelson, who operates Nelson's Real Estate in Antioch; three sons, Harold S. Nelson of Antioch, Larry L. of Palo Alto, Calif., and Wendell S. Nelson of LaJolla, Calif. She is also survived by four brothers, Homer Schwartz of Hillsboro, Ill.; Raymond of Kenosha; Ernest of Murphysboro, Ill.; and Clyde, also of Murphysboro; three sisters, Mrs. Estelle Turnage of Oak Park; Mrs. Blanche Peters of Virden, Ill.; and Mrs. Wanda Lee of LaDue, Missouri; two grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mrs. Nelson was born January 17, 1894, at Desoto, Ill., and had resided in Gorham, Walnut and Aledo, Ill., before moving to Antioch. She is a member of the Antioch Methodist Church and the W.S.C.S. of that church. She is a member of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary, Post 748.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lincoln and Ida Schwartz, and one daughter, Mildred. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch. Interment was in Hillside Cemetery at Antioch. Memorials may be given to the Antioch Methodist Church or the Antioch Rescue Squad.

Present Flags To Township's Schools

Antioch American Legion Post 748 is nearing the end of its flag presentations.

Post 748 has purchased a flag for each school in Antioch Township. So far, flags have been presented to all schools except Emmons and St. Peter's Catholic School.

A flag was presented to Antioch High School Athletic Dept. October 22, in ceremonies preceding a football game. The presentation was made by Commander Bernard Stadiek, Senior Vice

Issue Last Warning On Sewer Hook-Up

The village board of Antioch decided Tuesday night to give residents who have not yet hooked into sewers until Dec. 20 to take some action. The action was taken after several warning letters sent over the past year, informing residents of Oakwood Knolls that they must hook into village sewers by October 15th of this year. Most residents have responded.

The village board held a special hearing on November 8 to give residents a chance to inform the board of special hardships which prevented them from hooking into the sewers. At that time, most of the delinquent residents appeared and arranged to install sewers.

At the present time, six property owners have taken no action, nor made any reply to the board's letters. Village attorney Ed Jacobs drafted a letter to be sent to these residents, giving them until Dec. 20 to contact the board and make arrangements for sewer installation. Possible legal action to be taken by the board will be discussed if owners fail to contact the board.

BOARD OVERRULES ZONING BOARD

The village board Tuesday night voted 4 to 1, with one member absent, to reject the recommendation of the Zoning Board in regard to the re-zoning of property on Orchard St., owned by Chris and Betty Mortensen.

The Mortensens had asked that their property be re-zoned from R-1 to B-4, to allow them to remodel their home to provide for a rental apartment. The zoning board recommended denial of the petition.

The village board voted to overrule the zoning board's recommendation and grant the re-zoning to the Mortensens.

BID ON PROPERTY

Only one bid was received on the advertised sale of property belonging to the village at Willowdale Dairy. The Dairy bid $25 for the property. Action on the sale was held over until the next board meeting.

Sale of the property was decided on earlier by the board because of a legal tangle in property deeds. Rather obscure early deeds indicated that the village owned property on which Willowdale Dairy is located.

OTHER BUSINESS

Willie Hughes, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Antioch, was given permission to distribute 700 pamphlets to homes throughout the village. The pamphlets will contain portions of the Scriptures. Pastor Hughes also announced that there would be continuous reading of the Bible at the church from 9 a.m. Dec. 21 to 9 a.m. Jan. 1. Anyone who wishes to come is invited to attend the Bible reading at any time.

Mayor Ray Toft announced receipt of a letter inviting himself and members of the board to a meeting at which information will be given to municipal leaders in regard to Federal aid on water pollution and control problems.

The meeting will be held in Mundelein today (Thursday). The letter was from Sam Eubanks, assistant to Governor Kerner on Local Improvements. Toft said he planned to attend and urged board members to attend if possible.

NEW ORDINANCE

The board approved an ordinance on street excavating. The ordinance provides that a $10 permit shall be procured by anyone doing any excavating work on village property or streets; contains specifications of precautions to be taken by such persons; provides for inspection and supervision of the work by the Superintendent of Public Works, and provides for a penalty of $5 to $200 for each day that anyone may be in violation of the ordinance. The ordinance in its entirety will be published in next week's issue of the Antioch News.

Vern Barnstable reported that drainage is greatly improved since Sequoit Creek has been cleaned out. The only remaining bottleneck, he said, is on the Pittman property.

The board approved the expenditure of $560 as their share of over-sized sewer line servicing Westgate subdivision.

Trustee Barnstable reported that he had attended a Civil Defense meeting with Civil Defense Director Ed Frazier, and said that he felt Frazier had done a fine job for the village. Matching funds for Antioch's Civil Defense siren have been approved at the state level. One more approval is needed, he said, before purchase of the siren.

Toys For Tots Gets Underway

The Toys for Tots campaign in Antioch will get a helping hand from Explorer Post No. 91 and their leader, Jack Homan.

Homan and Ken Schultz of Lyons-Ryan Ford, who was chairman of the Marine Reserves Toys for Tots campaign in Antioch last year, have joined their efforts in promoting the drive, with the cooperation of the Antioch Moose. The Moose have conducted a similar drive in Antioch each year.

The local clergymen will cooperate in supplying lists of needy families. The Moose also have lists of recipients of the toys. Homan stressed that all the toys collected in this area will be given to children of needy families in this area.

Homan and Schultz expect to place about 30 barrels in the Antioch-Lake Villa area with the help of Post 91.

Write To Santa, He'll Write Back

Santa's Mail Box is open and ready for business, kiddies. So if you want to write to the jolly old gent and tell him what you want, or if you just want to wish him a Merry Christmas, here's your chance.

The two Santa's Mail Boxes are located in front of V&S Hardware on Main St., and in front of Ace Hardware in the shopping plaza in Antioch. Every letter dropped in Santa's Mail Box between now and Dec. 20 will be answered. So be sure to include your name and address so Santa can mail a letter to you.

The yearly letters to Santa project is sponsored by the Lake Region Jaycees. Santa received over 200 letters through the Jaycees efforts last year, and all the children received replies from Santa. At least, those who remembered to write their name and address received replies.

The Jaycees have been custodians of Santa's Mail Box since 1962. This year, Ed Ring is in charge of the project.

A.G.S. Christmas Concert Sunday

The Antioch Grade School Band will present their thirteenth annual Christmas concert Sunday (Dec. 11) at the Grade School gym.

The concert will start at 3 p.m., with Lt. Col. Mark Azzolina as guest conductor. Col. Azolina is a former director of the N.O.R.A.D. Band. He is now with the Educational Dept. of the Le Blanc Musical Instrument Co. of Kenosha.

The program will contain many Christmas songs, also marches, overtures and novelties.

Kenneth Smouse will narrate the concert. George Ollisar is director of the band.

Antioch Hosts Firemen For Barn Burndown

Fifteen Fire Departments, plus the Antioch fire fighters participated in a successful burn-down in Antioch Nov. 27.

Dr. Edward Abderholden donated two large barns to be destroyed by fire to provide practice of the firemen. The barns were located on his property on Tiffany Rd.

The day was wet and chilly, and there was some difficulty in getting the fires started. Once the blaze got under way, the firemen use only enough water to assure themselves they could put the fire out if it were necessary. The combined fire departments pumped approximately 582,000 gallons of water during the practice as

Dr. Abderholden watched his driveway disappear under the weight of the equipment. A hot meal was served to the fire fighters following the practice burn-down. Antioch Fire Chief Charles Maples said, "We'd like to thank Dr. Abderholden and the surrounding fire departments for making this a real fine day."

The following fire departments took part in the practice session: Bonnie Brook, Countryside, Deerfield, Fox Lake, Grayslake, Guernsey, Knollwood, Lake Forest, Lake Villa, Libertyville, Mundelein, Round Lake, Vernon, Waukegan and Winthrop Harbor, in addition to Antioch.

Consider Diamond Jubilee For Antioch

Whether or not Antioch will celebrate its 75th year as an incorporated village will be decided within the next few weeks. Also to be decided is whether the celebration will be locally planned or whether the services of a celebration management firm will be used.

A preliminary meeting of civic and business leaders last Wednesday night at the village hall considered the possibilities, and heard an explanation of the role of the celebration management firm from Sid Eckdale of Rogers Co.

Rogers Co., Eckdale explained, would make a preliminary survey of the town, if their services are employed, and determine the size and scope of the celebration which would be practical. From information compiled in their years of managing such affairs, they would lay out guidelines for the Jubilee committee and give them the material to work with.

They would supply a consultant to advise committee members in decision-making. However, the celebration would be locally managed and local people would participate in all activities planned.

The day was wet and chilly, and there was some difficulty in getting the fires started. Once the blaze got under way, the firemen use only enough water to assure themselves they could put the fire out if it were necessary. The combined fire departments pumped approximately 562,000 gallons of water during the practice as

Dr. Abderholden watched his driveway disappear under the weight of the equipment. A hot meal was served to the fire fighters following the practice burn-down. Antioch Fire Chief Charles Maples said, "We'd like to thank Dr. Abderholden and the surrounding fire departments for making this a real fine day."

The following fire departments took part in the practice session: Bonnie Brook, Countryside, Deerfield, Fox Lake, Grayslake, Gurnee, Knollwood, Lake Forest, Lake Villa, Libertyville, Mundelein, Round Lake, Vernon, Waukegan and Winthrop Harbor, in addition to Antioch.

Fringe Benefits In Christmas Shopping

'Tis the season to be merry. 'Tis also the season to shop for gifts to present to family and friends. The season when, if ever, a merchant hopes to make enough profit so that slow seasons will not be a total loss.

A lot of money changes hands during the Christmas shopping season, and every business is competing fiercely for your dollars. Before you spend them, give some thought to getting some extra benefits for your money.

If you spend your money in your home town, and you're a taxpayer, you're going to get some of it back. Not in money that's handed back to you, but because you will not have to pay as much in taxes.

The village government of Antioch received $68,774 in sales tax payments in the first ten months of 1966. That's quite a bit of money that village residents won't have to pay in taxes. Every time you shop in another town, you're helping to pay that town's taxes in the sales tax you pay. Why not keep your own taxes down by shopping at home?

The sales tax taken in by the village government goes to pay police, lights, off-street parking, and a variety of other branches of your government.

Prices in Antioch stores are very competitive. If you check, you'll often find items cheaper in Antioch stores than you can get them at large shopping centers.

Perhaps it's your complaint that you can't find things in Antioch that you can find in larger cities and shopping plazas. In some cases, it's true. Stores in smaller towns can't always carry the variety of choice that can be carried by a store that does a larger volume of business. However, that situation is never going to improve if you make a habit of shopping away from home. The more you buy from your local retail stores, the larger stock they can afford to carry. So if you'd like to be able to shop near home, buy whenever you can from your local merchants and you'll find that the quality of shopping available in your home town improves.

Last, but not least, of the very good reasons for shopping near home are the expense of driving to other shopping centers. The cost of driving your car twenty miles often cancels out any money you may have saved on a certain item. To say nothing of the time you've spent and the risk of driving farther on roads that are often hazardous in the December weather and the heavy Christmas traffic.

Then there's the matter of exchanging a purchase which turns out to be faulty. How many times have you bought a Christmas toy with working parts, making your purchase perhaps twenty miles from home, then discovered that you have a piece of faulty merchandise? A simple matter to exchange it if the purchase was made near home. An expensive and irritating chore if you must drive a long distance to return an item of small value. The same irritating result can be experienced with any merchandise—clothes with an unnoticed flaw, an appliance that's defective. It's a fairly common occurrence in the Christmas rush, and one that's particularly upsetting during the busy pre-holiday season.

So shop in your own home town when you can. In the long run, it's easier and cheaper, and means better shopping next year.

Signs of Christmas

Alas, 'tis the season to be jolly with Christmas showing everywhere. With Santas in every other store, bustling shoppers, parties in the making, toys for tots, and just being pleasant to one another during this joyous season.

One sure way to get in the spirit of it all is to attend the annual grade school Christmas Concert this Sunday at 3 p.m. Don't miss it. Grand Opening.

The First National Bank can well be proud of their beautiful new surroundings. This reporter stopped in there and was handed a glass of free flowing champagne. It was very tempting to stop by again and again. Another added asset to our growing metropolis.

Arts, Crafts and Etc.

Another grand opening this week was at Bernzette's. Our new arts and antiques store, located in the old liquor store building. She certainly has a different selection to choose from.

Stork News

Ken and June Pedersen are the proud parents of a new son, just in time for Christmas. He has two brothers awaiting his arrival home.

While having coffee out at Sequoit Harbor the other day, I spotted a cute little sleigh. Being curious I asked what they were for. Found out if you purchase a new ski sled you receive this little sleigh free to tow behind it. Sounds like fun.

Dear Deer

Beware of deer crossing out on 173 between Antioch and Richmond. In the last 2 weeks 3 deer have been killed and a total of 6 cars involved. I'm sure if more people knew how plentiful they were in this area they'd be on the lookout. So let's take a word to the wise as sufficient.

Let's do a favor for the postmen and try to get our cards in the mail no later than this week. O.K.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Hopes for any kind of a college in Lake County have been given quite a jolt the past few weeks and it begins to look as though this area will continue to trail behind other areas of the state in securing state largess.

It is to be hoped that the junior college group will continue its efforts to establish a junior college in this area with or without the class conscious Gold Coast communities.

It is also to be hoped that State Senator Robert Coulson will continue his fight to secure a full four year state university to serve this area, but this looks hopeless now.

Lake County by every standard should be entitled to one of the new state schools, but it won't come automatically.

Every available pressure: political, population, and money should be brought to bear on the state college commission to secure a school in Lake County.

As the Illinois General Assembly gets ready to go into session it is interesting to reflect back on a booklet written a few years ago by Sen. Coulson in which he called attention to some existing evils and shortcomings in the State government.

The Waukegan solon was particularly concerned with the struggle between the Legislative and Executive branches of the state government which has been going to the Executive almost by default.

Sen. Coulson warned in his booklet, "Illinois in the 1970's," that law-making prerogatives were being surrendered to the governor because of the last minute flood of laws which reached the governor's desk after the legislature had adjourned.

With the General Assembly out of session there is no way to overcome gubernatorial vetoes, a safeguard which was designed to limit the Executive's control of legislation.

The new legislature will be controlled by the Republicans in both Houses and it will be interesting to see if the party leadership can schedule legislation so it is all on the Governor's desk before adjournment.

Unfortunately some of the GOP leaders in the legislature will be operating with one eye on the elections two years from now and will be careful to avoid any legislation or action which might interfere with their plans for seeking state office.

Sen. Coulson also urges a constitutional convention to re-write the present law of the state.

The need for such a convention becomes especially obvious after the recent defeat of the referendum on changing the constitution's Revenue Article.

Sen. Coulson, who will be serving as one of the Majority Leaders in the Senate, would like to see some major revisions in the revenue structure of the state, but would also advocate a new study into the efficiency of the cumulative voting for State Representative.

Cumulative voting was adopted as an experiment to maintain a semblance of balance in the House thus avoiding extreme swings in legislation with each change of control.

This has been accomplished, but the effect has not been as great as it might be because many of the minority party legislators are "captives" of the dominant party in their district and vote with the majority when their votes are needed.

The legislature will be faced with a tremendous work load in the present session judging from the number of bills already being processed, but perhaps they can find time to delve into some of the long range, philosophical studies suggested by Sen. Coulson.

Elected county officials might well be concerned with the outcome of the pending battles between the Sheriff's Merit Commission and the Sheriff's office over control of personnel in the department.

Republican Party leadership in the county should also be concerned if they want to retain control of the courthouse, the basis of its political strength in this area.

If the Merit Commission idea takes hold the next step may be a merit system for all county employees with the responsible officials stripped of all personnel authority.

This would, of course, wipe out the patronage system, but would in no way guarantee any improvement in service or efficiency.

P.M. & L. News

Today I brew, tomorrow I bake

I stamp my foot, and the world doth shake.

And no one knows from whence I came,

Or that Rumpelstiltskin is my name.

Oh, show me east, and show me west,

Till I find the child that suits me best.

Show me north and show me south . . .

So chants Rumpelstiltskin as he dances around his magic pot. His biggest wish is that he can put a king's baby in his pot so when he boils the pot he can rule the thoughts of men. In doing this he can make an end of men and rule the world himself.

And from this point the tale of Rumpelstiltskin will unfold for young and old alike on the stage of the PM&L Theatre on December 10, 11, 17, and 18. As in the past, these performances will be at 2 p.m., but in addition this year there will be one evening performance on December 10 at 7:30. This will give the entire family a chance to have a pre-holiday evening out together. There is a certain excitement for children seeing live theatre during the holiday season which is very contagious.

Jay Horton, a veteran of several PM&L productions, shines again in the role of Rumpelstiltskin. Jay is a sophomore at ACIS. Geri Duncan plays Mother Hulda, Rumpelstiltskin's companion on the Edge of the World. Geri has been in Guys and Dolls, The Elves and the Shoemaker, and Gold in the Hills, with PM&L and in Most Happy Fella with Mr. L's Carousel Theatre.

Heather Hunley, the Miller's daughter, also a sophomore at ACIS, follows in her parents' footsteps in loving the theatre. She was in The Elves and the Shoemaker for PM&L and The Mouse That Roared at ACIS, and has become a speaker in her own right, having won the six-state regional oratorical contest of the D.A.R.

Josef Hunley, husband of director Valerie Hunley, plays the Miller. Joe is Field Representative of the Lake County Red Cross, is vice president of PM&L, and has directed or been in a good share of PM&L's productions.

Shirley Jensen, the Miller's wife, especially enjoys acting in the children's shows. She was in Flibberty Gibbet last year and also the melodrama Gold in the Hills. Shirley is active in many Antioch community affairs.

Other cast members are Homer LaPlant as the King, Steve Krotz as the King's son and Marie Jasien as the King's daughter. Marty Lusik and Gary Strahan play the parts of Inger and Gothol while Mary Lulofs and Carol Brandy enact the parts of the first and second ladies. The role of the nurse will be played by Roberta Liberty.

Familiar Christmas carols bring new hope to patients in hospitals and nursing homes visited by The Salvation Army. Through its League Army annually visits more than 3 million persons in some 10,000 institutions across the country. Many of these visits are made at Christmas time.

in the State Department and in every other Department, bureau, board and commission. This can lead to the most oppressive type of tyranny.

What kind of government do we really have, if our votes count for naught? Why elect good men to office, when they can do nothing because of the sticky bureaucratic apparatus they inherit?

Public Often Forgets Varied Role Of Police

Recently in Kingsport, Tenn., an elderly man who had been arrested on local charges some 400 times since 1939 passed away. He had no known relatives. When the city's police officers, many of whom had made some of the arrests, learned of his death, they took up a collection from members of the department to pay for his funeral. In addition, six of the officers served as his pallbearers. Because of their kindness, the man was given a proper burial.

Last May, FBI Agents in Chicago located a baby boy who had been kidnapped a month earlier from his South Carolina home when he was only two weeks old. The child's distraught mother was overjoyed to know that her baby was alive and safe. When Agents who had investigated the case, learned that the mother was destitute, they donated the money which enabled her to immediately fly to Chicago and take her baby home.

I cite these two incidents not because they merit wider recognition, although the actions of the police officers and the Agents were indeed commendable. Nor are the incidents rare; good deeds of this type occur repeatedly in enforcement agencies throughout the country. Rather, I mention the two incidents because they illustrate a benevolent and humanitarian aspect of law enforcement work which is often ignored and unappreciated.

The role of the policeman in our society goes far beyond the sworn duties of enforcing the law and arresting lawbreakers. Modern day computers would be taxed to process the thousands of special services performed for the public by law enforcement officers every day.

In any emergency, real or imaginary, the first cry that goes forth is for the police. The officer on the beat must be a journeyman of many trades — an on-the-spot doctor, plumber, or babysitter. Today's enforcement officer is expected to have multifarious abilities, explicit judgment, and an unbreakable temperament. He performs on a public stage. The audience is "live"; every observer is a critic. There can be no retakes of his efforts or pretaped performances. He is second-guessed, ridiculed, abused, cursed, assaulted, and sometimes murdered. But when he leads a small, lost tot from a densely wooded area to the arms of a joyously weeping mother, his is a rewarding and satisfying service.

The duty of the enforcement officer is often an unpopular and unpleasant task. His job could be easier if, at the height of erroneous charges and unwarranted attacks against his profession, citizens would remember some of the humanitarian aspects of his work which they have come to expect and depend upon.

Deadline Near For Traffic Safety Essay Contest

Illinois high school seniors were reminded today that only a month remains for them to submit entries in the 1966 traffic safety essay contest being sponsored by the Illinois Editors' Traffic Safety Seminar.

Willard S. Hansen, Seminar president and editor of the Champaign News-Gazette, pointed out that time is running out for high school seniors to submit their entries before the December 31 deadline in order to compete for one of the five $500 scholarship grants being made available to contest winners by the Chicago Motor Club.

Hansen said that there is statewide interest in the contest among high school students, as indicated by the more than 500 requests received so far for entry blanks.

In order to be eligible for one of the Chicago Motor Club scholarship grants, he said the following contest rules have to be observed:

—The essay length is limited to 1,000 words. The high school senior mails it, with entry blank, to Seminar Headquarters, 66 East South Water Street, Chicago, Ill. 60601. Essays must be received by Dec. 31, 1966.

—A Seminar screening committee will pick the best essays to send to the students' local newspapers for publication. Contest rules require that an essay be published in the entrant's local newspaper to be eligible for final scholarship consideration.

—The local newspaper returns a tear sheet of the published essay to Seminar headquarters. To be eligible for scholarship and other awards the published essay must be returned by March 1, 1967.

—A special committee of educators to be named by the Seminar will select the five scholastic winners from all essays which have been published. All other published essays will earn special honorable mention awards.

Scholarship awards will be presented at the 10th annual Seminar meeting in Springfield, April 14, 1967.

Jobs Open At Great Lakes

Under a new U. S. Civil Service Commission announcement, career positions as Nursing Assistants have recently been made available.

The Nursing Assistant positions at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Downey, Illinois, are open immediately to both male and female applicants at the GS-2 level (3925 per year) with promotional opportunities after six months of satisfactory service.

No written test or experience is required.

The GS-2 Nursing Assistant position is a trainee position in which the trainee receives classroom instruction and supervised ward practices from professional nurses. He acquires basic knowledge and skill in caring for patients with various illnesses.

Consider the opportunities for a rewarding career in helping the sick, in giving assurance and sympathetic understanding to patients, and in becoming a member of the nursing team which plans total nursing care of patients.

Full information and application forms may be obtained from the Great Lakes Office, Interagency Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners for Illinois, Building 3400, Great Lakes, Illinois 60088, or at the Personnel Office, Veterans Administration Hospital, Downey, Ill. 60064.

has been set for the evening of January 11th at Libertyville High School.

The State has allocated $500,000 to publicize the State throughout the world. A publication will be printed for distribution and each county has been asked to contribute material.

Chambers of Commerce, Historical Societies, media representatives, and any other organizations which wish to assist or contribute to the county's participation in this year long event should attend this organizational meeting.

Chairman-Henke asks that persons wishing to attend the meeting or want more information, please contact him by writing or phoning him at the supervisors' office in the Court House.

High Mass Unites Antioch Couple

By Del Jahneke

St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church of Antioch was the setting for the high nuptial mass that united Miss Janet Balsamello to Sergeant David C. White, U. S. Marine Corps, on November 5, at 12 o'clock noon. Miss Balsamello is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Balsamello, rural Antioch, and Sergeant White is the son of Mrs. Kathleen White, Antioch. The Rev. James F. Prendergast officiated at the double-ring ceremony where the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of off-white silk-faced peau de sole and re-embroidered Alencon lace, accented by seed pearls and tulle. Her dress had a scoop neckline, long sleeves, and was highly fashioned by a natural waist and controlled skirt that swept to a hip-line bustle. Sprays of Alencon lace and pearls adorned the front bodice and skirt with a detachable chapel train fastened at the waist. A peau de sole headpiece with lace and seed pearls held the French illusion four-tiered elbow-length veil. Mrs. White carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and feathered fuchsia.

The Maid of Honor was the bride's sister, Miss Barbara Balsamello. Her two bridesmaids were Mrs. Judy M. Rollins, and Miss Carol Ann Stolfa. Ronald S. White, brother of the groom, was best man, and Ronald Larson and James R. Balsamello, Jr., were ushers.

The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore identical royal blue velvet gowns, empire sheath style with mid-length sleeves, with blue and gold metallic waistbands. Blue and gold metallic bows held their illusion jet veils in place. The flowers carried by the maid of honor and bridesmaids were crescent bouquets of white star-burst mums and blue pompon mums.

The vocalist was Miss Betty Frank, and the organist was Mrs. Jeannette Pachey. A reception for 150 guests was held at Victoria's in Chicago.

Both the newlyweds are graduates of the Antioch Community High School. Mrs. White was a former employee of the Globe Department Store in Fox Lake. Sgt. White, after having served in Viet Nam, is now stationed at the Marine Corps Air Station, Yuma, Arizona.

The Whites honeymooned in the Chicago area for several weeks, then were enroute to Yuma, Arizona, where they will make their home.

Carol Novak Weds Donald Perry

Miss Carol Novak became the bride of Donald Perry in a double ring ceremony at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Antioch November 26. The Rev. Alfred Henderson officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of lace over bridal taffeta, with scalloped neckline, long sleeves and a chapel train. Her illusion fingertip veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Novak of Antioch. Mr. Perry is the son of Mrs. LaVerne Perry, Antioch, and the late Mr. Perry.

An aunt of the bride, Barbara Slosarzik, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lila Perry, Sherry Kimmey and Sandy Stein. Marie Busca was flower girl and Lloyd Wilkinson was ring bearer.

The maid of honor and flower girl wore matching empire gowns, with bodices of deep turquoise velvet with bell sleeves and light turquoise crepe skirts. Their headpieces were velvet bows, holding blusher veils.

The bridesmaids wore similar gowns of deep blue velvet with powder blue skirts. The bride's attendants carried bouquets of contrasting blue tinted mums.

Richard Perry was best man. Mark Larsen, Russ Horton and Henry Stein served as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Lake Villa V.F.W. Post.

After a short honeymoon the newlyweds will reside in Antioch.

Legion Auxiliary

By Del Jahneke

The Antioch American Legion Auxiliary will hold their Christmas party meeting on Friday, Dec. 9, at the Antioch Legion Home, at 6:30 p.m., with the Antioch American Legion and their wives as their guests. The affair is a pot-luck supper, with a brief business meeting, a $1.00 Christmas gift exchange, and card games afterwards.

Mrs. John W. Horan, Jr., Unit Rehabilitation chairman, announces that the Antioch Unit will sponsor a birthday party for the men and women patients at Downey Hospital, Building 133, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. on December 13th. Mrs. Lila Palenske will strum her guitar in a medley of Christmas carols, with the audience singing, if they so desire. There will be a large decorated birthday cake, and six dozen dixe ice cream cups, six dozen cookies, plus diabetic candy and cookies.

These monthly birthday parties honor all those patients whose birthdays occur during that month. The gifts for women's birthdays will be furnished by the Hospital chairman, through the Past Presidents' Parley program. Accompanying Mrs. Horan and Mrs. Palenske to Downey Hospital will be Mrs. Bernard Stadick, Mrs. Burt Anderson, and Mrs. Myra Randall.

The American Legion Auxiliary, in co-operation with other organizations, will hold Christmas parties at Downey Hospital on December 20, 21 and 22, with parties beginning at 9:30 a.m.; 1:30 p.m. and dance sessions on December 20 and 21 at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Herbert Gleason, Libertyville, 10th District Director, suggests that all Units wishing to participate in any of these Christmas parties, first check with the Department Hospital chairman, Mrs. Robert Brooge, Deerfield, regarding what refreshments are required.

MOOSE TOPICS

By Lillian Birdsell

The hunters of the Antioch Moose Lodge are really taking advantage of the few days left before the pheasant season ends. A gift of a hunting jacket will be awarded to the hunter who submits the longest tail feather of his catch and a long line of feathers is already on display at the Antioch Moose home. As of Sunday, Dec. 4, hunter Jim Green of Antioch has the longest feather in the collection but hunters still have till Dec. 11th before it's over.

The by-laws concerning the hunting club were officially accepted at the meeting held at the Antioch Moose Home on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 4, with 16 members present. A demonstration was given by president Leonard Huhn on how to reload a shotgun with the Mec Shotgun Shell reloader. It was interesting to the hunters to watch Huhn deprime, reload and crimp the shells, all in one operation.

Plans were also discussed on a designated date for a family outing such as father and son, father and daughter or husband and wife. This I found to be very interesting and am looking forward to that day when I can go hunting with my wife and other wives who feel the same way.

The next meeting for the hunters will be on Sunday, Jan. 15 at the Antioch Moose Home at 2:30 p.m. Teams to be set up to take part in trap shooting competition with other Lodges will be one of the big features coming meeting and also the delinquent dues list will be taken into consideration. A Mulligan Stew dinner was served to the hunters following their 2½ hour long meeting.

There were 102 persons in attendance at the open meeting held by the Women of the Moose at the Antioch Moose Home on Thursday evening, Dec. 1. Mary Ferone, Past Deputy Grand Regent of Illinois was an unexpected honored guest from Chicago Lawn Chapter No. 110, who came with 32 co-workers from the Cicero Chapter No. 747 as their mystery guest. The Social Service committee had charge of the Chapter night program, and presented a fine skit of Art Linkletter's TV program.

An enrollment was held for three new members, being Jane M. Huhn and Alice Zoller, both of Ingleside and both sponsored by Charlotte Mallory, and Bernice Iwicki of Chicago, sponsored by Doris John.

Collegian Alice Young announced about the project to bring Mrs. Blaney, mother of the chapter's Sunshine Child here from Canada to spend the Christmas Holiday with her children. Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Blaney had to be separated from her children and while three of them are living at Mooseheart and because of the constant care that is needed by her fourth child, who is seriously ill, had to remain in Canada. The project of raising money to bring this mother and ill child together with the rest of her family for the Christmas holiday was an overwhelming success. Mrs. Blaney is due to arrive here from Canada on Dec. 23rd.

Honored guests present at this meeting were Governor of the Loyal Order of Antioch, Richard Jorgensen, Jr., governor, Seth Mark, treasurer, Harvey Gehrls, Past governor and trustee, John Dupre, outer guard, Scotty Birdsell and custodian, Ed Kurtz. Jorgensen and Kurtz, both gave a welcome speech to the visiting chapters present.

The next meeting for the Women of the Moose will be held at the Antioch Moose Home on Thursday, Dec. 15 at which time the chapter will hold a Christmas party. All co-workers are asked to be present at 6:30 p.m. for dinner and to bring a dish to pass. The meeting will take place at 8 p.m., and dessert and the gift exchange will follow the meeting. All co-workers are invited to attend.

The Legion Pot Luck and Christmas Party is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m. This year, in lieu of going out for dinner, it was decided that the Legion would hold their Christmas party at the Moose Home and to make it a pot luck with all members bringing a dish to pass and in lieu of having a gift exchange, each member will donate one dollar to the Legion treasure. A gala evening is planned for all who attend. A Legion Ceremonial will take place Sunday, Dec. 11, at the Elk-horn Moose Home at 2 p.m. This is the time to sign up new members for the Legion and at the same time celebrate the Herder's 25 years of service to the Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. George Camphouse celebrated fifty years of marriage last Sunday.

Mark 50 Years Of Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Camphouse, Rt. 4, Antioch, were the guests of honor at a party celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary last Sunday.

The surprise party for the couple was attended by about 100 guests, many of them from out of town. The party was held at Lorenz's Smart Country House.

Mr. and Mrs. Camphouse were married Dec. 16, 1916. They lived in the Chicago area until 1950, when they moved to Antioch. Mr. Camphouse has been employed at Lyons-Ryan Ford Sales for ten years, and still works there.

The Camphouses have one daughter and two sons—Janet Westhoff of Antioch, George A. of Antioch and Robert of Des Plaines. They also have twelve grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

An elaborate cake made in the numerals "55" was a feature of the anniversary celebration.

A recipe for a long and happy marriage from Mrs. Camphouse was "Be honest with one another."

one of 30 boys, out of 1107, who was chosen to go to engineering school. He left Friday for Fort Belvoir, Virginia to begin his training. He will be home December 17 for two weeks.

Garden Club Meeting

The Lindenhurst Garden Club is having their next meeting on Monday, December 12, and not the 5th. Since this will be the Christmas party, members and guests are asked to notify the hostess, Mrs. Armand Bourque if they plan to attend, so that she will know how many to plan for. There will be a $2 gift exchange.

Nite-Owls

Mrs. Pat Vrba was hostess to her Canasta club, the Nite-Owls, last Friday. Dolores Povilis had the highest score. Luncheon was served.

New Baby

Art and Donna Neubauer welcomed their first son and at Victory Memorial Hospital. Arthur Stephen weighed 6 pounds, 13 ounces at birth. Happy to have a baby brother are Kathy, Collette and Sharon. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neubauer of Elgin and Mr. and Mrs. William Sporka of Elmhurst. Art is village treasurer of Lindenhurst.

Christened

Robert Joseph Wolff, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wolff, 2301 E. Greenbriar Ln., had Mrs. Virginia Henry and her son, Edward, for his godparents when he was baptized at Prince of Peace Church two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Majewski of Niles, uncle and aunt of Stephanie Lynn Tomek, were her godparents when she was christened at Prince of Peace church three weeks ago. Her grandparents, and other relatives were also there for the happy daughter of Donald and Patricia Tomek, 510 Hillcrest Lane.

Jeffrey Jon Maxwell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxwell, was baptized at St. Mark Lutheran church last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald (Mary Kay) Giebelhaus were the godparents. Jr. Girl Scouts Earn Skating Badges

Fifteen Jr. Girl Scouts of Troop 269 earned their skating badges at the Lakes Region roller rink recently. Receiving certificates and badges from Mr. James Ferrier were Julie Quinn, Karen Saran, Rhonda Roth, Laurie Roher, Kathy Flanagan, Ann Sweeney, Jackie Gilson, Sharon Dukes, Janice Bittner, Karen Restarick, Jackie Moffitt, Melody Muffett, Regina and Francine Henry and Mary Jo Parpan. They gave the flag ceremony on skates, and Regina, Francine and Mary Jo were chosen to do the figure eight for the audience. Mothers, fathers, sisters and brother all attended, and joined in doing the Hokey-Poke and Bunny Hop on skates. Each girl made her own skating skirt, one of the requirements to earn her badge. Mr. and Mrs. Ferrier served coffee and donuts to everyone.

Loralyn Persha was invested into the troop during a candle light ceremony last week. She said the promise and the troop said the laws. Laurie Roher, Ann Sweeney, Julie Quinn and Cindy Skrzynecki were installed as Patrol Leaders at last week's meeting. The girls will serve about six months.

PREPARE SANTA'S LIST CAREFULLY

Christmas is the time for merriment.

It's also the time for an alarming increase in children's accidents, frequently resulting from Santa's toys.

To help prevent these needless accidents, prepare Santa's list with care. For example, when selecting—

ELECTRIC TOYS—

"Be sure all electric toys have the label of the Underwriters' Laboratories on the cord and toy itself to assure safe construction."

"Since most electric toys are constructed to operate on six to 12 volts, make sure they include a transformer to reduce the regular 110-volt house current to this level."

"Once you have selected an electric toy, be sure your child understands the potential danger of electric shock. Teach him NEVER to handle an electric toy with wet hands or in wet clothing if he's been playing in the snow."

"Inspect the toy periodically for frayed cords or other defects. If you discover one, make the necessary repairs or discard the toy immediately."

CONSTRUCTION TOYS

"If your child is too young to handle tools, purchase construction toys that are glued or fitted together."

"If he's old enough to handle tools, be sure they're strong and durable."

"Check the heads of striking tools, such as hammers and mallets, to be sure they are securely fastened."

TOYS FOR THE BABY OR TODDLER

"Keep in mind that babies and toddlers follow the "hand to mouth" rule. So make sure all parts of the toy can withstand your child's curious investigation. The eyes of a teddy bear, for example, should be made of cloth sewn onto the toy—not fastened with pins."

"Make sure the toy is lightweight to prevent possible injury."

"Buy toys made of non-brittle material—never glass. Toys made of celluloid are also unsuitable for if they're broken, the edges are extremely sharp."

"If you choose a metal toy, be sure edges are rolled in or rounded."

"Some toys may be covered with lead-base paints that could cause serious poisoning. So check the label to see if vegetable dye or other non-poisonous paint was used."

SEAT BELTS
"Being a firm believer in highway safety, we look on the efforts of individuals, Congress and auto manufacturers concentrating on making driving safer. The squabbling back and forth has already had some effect and the continuing suggestions, threats and intimidations may bring about some revolutionary changes."

"We drive quite a bit and, other than a few kooks you meet on the highway, most drivers seem to be OK, but there will always be the take-a-chance guy or the in-a-hurry-to-get-nowhere driver who makes it tough on the safe drivers. The seat belts in our car are used at all times the car is on the highway, but it is amazing the number of persons still neglecting to hook up when they get into the old buggy for a drive."—The Christman Weekly Courier.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The Golden Text of this week's Christian Science Lesson-Sermon is from Isaiah: "He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young." The lesson is titled, "God the Preserver of Man."

Among related passages from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following:

"The Scriptures says, 'They that wait upon the Lord... shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.' The meaning of that passage is not perverted by applying it literally to moments of fatigue, for the moral and physical are as one in their results."

Celebrate Birthday and Thanksgiving

Bob and Joy Manuel, and their two little girls, Vicky and Tracy drove to Des Plaines Sunday afternoon to visit Joy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Witthold, and to celebrate their Aunt Ethel's birthday. They were surprised to see Joy's brother, Roy Witthold, with three of his buddies from Chanute Field there for the weekend. Eight fellows rented a cab and drove up here from Rantoul. Roy is in the airforce and recently completed his basic training at Lackland Airforce Base. Joy says they had an early Thanksgiving.

Joy gave her mother a service flag she sent for from the Old Glory Mfg. Co. in Chicago. She was pleased. Do you have a service flag in your window for your boy or man in service? Let's remember our men in service.

Baby Shower

Mrs. Beverly Penrod was honored at a baby shower recently at the home of Mrs. Ruth Tuttle. Co-hostess was Mrs. Mary Ann Sams. Her friends from Lindenhurst, Waukegan, Northbrook and Venetian Village brought many useful, lovely gifts for the baby-to-be. The ladies played four games and the winners received prizes.

Women's Club Visits Great Lakes Hospital

Ten members of the Lindenhurst Women's Club visited Great Lakes Hospital recently, bringing a little brightness to the patients with their smiles, friendliness, games, prizes, fresh fruits and home made cookies. There were about 40 fellows in the one ward that they visited. Most were wounded in Viet Nam, but some were recovering from automobile accidents. A few of the ladies distributed food to the patients in the psychiatric ward. The ladies who went this time were Mesdames Joy Manuel, Jenny Volpentesta, Betty Ireland, Carol Sweeney, Pat Rickey, Pat Mauck, Bridle Gibbons, Eve Swanson, Dorothy Thompson and Sharon Bunkelman.

Township Government In Illinois

(This is the third in a series of articles on township government as it exists and operates in the State of Illinois. Here the functions of this governmental process are examined, noting variations which exist, and observing what township administrations presently do, and what they are capable of doing to expand their services at local levels.)

A few years ago, Macon County, Illinois held an interesting and vital referendum. A group of Decatur citizens stirred up a controversy about township government in their county, and put the question of township government versus county commission government to a vote.

Township government won by a landslide. The preference for it was greater than 2½ to 1.

Why did township government win so big? Basically, political observers said, the people preferred to keep local township officials as administrators of their affairs, rather than turn over the job to a few number of county officials—and substantially more appointed agents.

Back in the early years of American settlement, the citizens of Massachusetts Bay felt the same way. They preferred rule by the electorate, as close to the people as possible, compared to more remote, more centralized government. The attitudes and desires that served the people then are still good today.

In Illinois, 85 counties have township government, and this includes Lake county. All have the same set of officials, who are elected every four years. The election to be held in most Illinois townships in the Spring of 1967 will elect Highway Commissioners and one half of the Supervisors. The chief administrator in the township is the Supervisor, who directs affairs, presides at meetings, and also functions as treasurer, overseer of health and welfare, and performs other duties. Some larger townships have assistant supervisors, but in most all cases, he performs only one function along with the supervisor—that of sitting on the County Board.

Fontaine, vice president; Mrs. Garrett Trout, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Carl Anderson, secretary; and Mrs. Russell Doolittle, treasurer. At 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Amstutz presented a Christmas program, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Olsen. Also a sale of various articles was held.

In this capacity, the board members oversee the operation of county offices, and inter-relate the work of township functions, particularly in tax assessments and collections, and in building and maintaining local roads.

With local township officials also serving at the county level, the inter-relationship is complete, and is kept close to the people.

Other officials in the township include the clerk, who is the initiator and custodian of township reports and records. The township assessor and collector handle all property tax matters as assigned within their county. The highway commissioner is responsible for all township roads. Three township auditors are elected, whose duties are to review and audit bills, as well as to approve or disapprove the performance of township administrative officials.

All township officials in Illinois function alike except in Cook County, which has a board of county commissioners superimposed over its 30 townships. In Cook County, township supervisors do not constitute the county board. Instead, this board is elected separately, with ten members representing the city of Chicago, and five representing the county suburban area.

Tax matters are also handled differently in Cook County. Whereas in other counties, the township assessor does the complete property assessment job, in Cook County the township assessor is responsible only for locating assessment changes, and reporting to the county assessor's office. The township assessor does, however, handle all individual and commercial personal property tax matters.

Another variation in Cook County relates to the township collector. In Cook, as well as in Madison, Peoria, Sangamon and Will Counties, this official is an active member of the township administration, responsible for local collection of all real and personal property taxes.

In the Chicago area, city-county governments have moved into what once was township jurisdiction. Recently, a group of "master planners" have begun promoting the concept of a metropolitan governmental unit, which in its intent, would absorb not only Cook County townships, but also every type of governmental body in nearby counties. Most all local elective offices would be abolished, and replaced by a few elected officials, plus hundreds of appointed underlings, all subject to centralized political control.

Some day in the near future the Illinois state legislature will be called upon to vote on this issue. The people will not have this opportunity, except as they influence their legislators. At first, only the Chicago area will be affected, but if it happens here, the concept will ultimately be projected throughout the state.

More on the subject of master planning for "metro government" will be covered in a future article.

The present functions of township government, and the operational areas in which it can work, include a broad range of activities. These include taxation, health, welfare and food relief, education, local improvements, and control of obnoxious conditions.

In recent years, the state legislature authorized townships to set up youth commissions, and many townships now have highly successful, low-cost service programs to help control juvenile delinquency.

The multi-community problem which townships can effectively help solve is the matter of refuse disposal. This is now undergoing intensive study.

Another area of activity in which help is needed, and in which townships are beginning to help, is mental health center under township jurisdiction rather than attempt a "too-little" program on a single-community basis.

It sometimes appears that governmental functions overlap from one governmental body to another, from township to village or city, to county, state and federal governments. Of course, the bid trend has been for federal government agencies to move in, either via direct action or by financial control. Yet, most every function you might assign to your government relates locally—and in many, many cases, the township government is best constituted to administer such local, inter-community affairs. This represents democracy and self-government at its best.

A prominent political scientist recently made a significant point about this. He said, "As in so many other phases of government, citizens have been willing to let

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 6
THURS., DECEMBER 8, 1966

an opportunity for self-government go by default, only to see transferred to more distant and more impersonal units many functions that need not have been relinquished locally."

Such default could be fatal to the preservation of human rights and liberties. It takes interest and action on the part of the people to retain them.

More on this subject will be presented in the next article. It will discuss the people's role in township government—what they can do, what they have not done, and where do they go from here.

Sequoits Win; Set Sights On Lake Forest Victory

Led by the fine playing of Tyrone Walls and some very good defensive work by Bill Smith, Antioch's Sequoits won their first conference game 63-54 last Friday night over a stubborn Lake Zurich ball team.

Hitting for five field goals in the first quarter, Tyrone lead the Sequoits to a 22 to 16 first quarter lead. The Lake Zurich ball team were never able to catch the Sequoits after that.

Bill Smith, playing the last three quarters of the game, held All-Conference Bill Lehmann to four field goals, after he had scored four field goals in the first quarter.

The Sequoits played Friday night's game with their play maker, Jerry Whitson, sitting on the side lines with an infected toe. To add to their woes, Walls injured his ankle and finished the game limping, perceptibly. Both boys are expected to be ready for action in the big game against Lake Forest Friday night, however.

Walls and Don Zeman led the Sequoits in rebounding with 14 and 12 respectively. Antioch out-rebounded Lake Zurich 37 to 32.

Steve Miklautsch, getting his first starting role in place of injured Jerry Whitson, turned in a fine job on defense and added 14 points to the Sequoit score. Bill Sheldon took over capably as play maker.

Walls scored 27 points Friday night, leading both teams. Miklautsch scored 14 for the Sequoits and Zeman 11. Lehmann led the Lake Zurich squad with 20 points.

The Sequoits will travel to Lake Forest for a crucial game Friday night. The Sequoits are favorites in the conference race—if they can handle Lake Forest. Coach Roger Andrews said, "I'm hoping for a big turn-out of Antioch fans Friday night to cheer the boys on. They're going to need all the support they can get."

"We'll have to play better basketball if we expect to beat Lake Forest," Andrews said. "Our play against Lake Zurich was not the best, but under the circumstances, I feel the boys did a good job."

Saturday night the Sequoits will be at home, facing the Grayslake squad.

Speed Center Hosts Drivers At First Awards Banquet

The Lake Geneva Speed Center management played host recently to more than 250 drivers, owners, wives, guests and officials at the Sterlingworth Inn in Elkhorn, Wis.

The occasion marked the first awards party and dinner dance held for its modified stock car group, which just last month completed its initial season of competition on the only asphalt track in the area featuring the modifieds.

The evening was filled with fun and good times as the group was treated to humorous addresses by the Speed Center Manager Sturgess Taggart, Jr., and the nationally known after dinner speaker, Harry Manzor of the Cuna Mutual Insurance Society of Madison.

Duane Harris of Lake Villa was named the 1966 Modified Driver Champion and was presented a television set and a special award from the P. A. Sturdevant Co. of Addison, Ill. Rodger Otto of Burlington was runner up to the Champion and he, too, received a television set and an award from Wynns Friction Proofing Products of Milwaukee.

Soph Squad Wins

The Antioch Sophomore basketball squad scored an easy victory over the Lake Zurich Sophs last Friday night, with the final score Antioch 56, Lake Zurich 37.

Steve Owens lead the Sophs in scoring, with 22 points. Rod Boswell was next, hitting on five field goals for 10 points.

Coach Bob Yonke praised the defensive work of his squad. "We used a pressing defense, and with the boys really hustling, Lake Zurich was forced into making a number of bad passes and other ball control errors," Yonke said.

"I was also encouraged with our rebounding. We dominated the boards, and any team that can do this will win its share of ball games."

The Soph squad will meet Lake Forest on their home floor Friday night, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m. The sophomore game precedes the varsity game.

There's Always An Alibi

A noted psychologist—who also took to the bowling lanes twice a week for "relaxation"—once wrote a paper about the "real secret" to bowling success.

"The high score game," he wrote, "is achieved as much through concentration, that is, mental attitude, as it is through physical ability."

The week his paper was published, he went to his neighborhood lanes, missed a spare that cost his team a match, and told his teammates:

"I wish those guys in the next lane would be more courteous... one guy moved up on me as I made my approach and distracted me! Otherwise, I'd have made that spare—easy!"

The psychologist may not have realized it, but he joined the ranks of thousands of "Alibi" bowlers across the land. And the excuses you hear are just amazing. For example:

"My ball was cold... I just couldn't guide the darn thing!" "I shouldn't have tried to stand to the left!" "My Shoes pinch... I couldn't make a spare all night."

These and alibis like them, are heard just about anywhere bowling balls are rolled down hardwood lanes. But what about the alibis you haven't heard? A bowling buff collected some and passed them along. Spot any of your friends?

There was the lady bowler in Sioux City, Iowa, whose ball faded. She returned to her seat and proclaimed: "I shouldn't have started my diet today. If I wasn't so hungry I'd have had that extra push!"

A Princeton student took to the lanes on final exam week. When he left a 7-10 split during his match, he said: "All that pressure over final exams!" He had yet to crack a book.

In California, a "beachnik" found himself with nothing to do on a rainy day. His deep tan almost matched the dark stain on the hardwood floor. Yet, the reason he threw a gutterball, he said, was "because of the darned sunburn. Can't lift my arm without feeling the pain!"

Then there was the rock and roll teen-ager whose low score caused him to claim: "Wish they'd play only Beatle records on that juke box while I bowl. Those Frank Sinatra sides upset my rhythm!"

Of course, you don't hear the high score bowlers like Dick Weber, four time, BP-A All-Star Champion, complain. The better the game the more apt you are to hear the relaxed talk of a "winning attitude."

Getting back to our psychologist friend whose after hours interest is bowling, his advice on concentration is one of the keynotes to bowling success.

He also noted that it's important to relax; to keep your mind free and your body loose.

There's more to it than that, obviously. Some of Dick Weber's tips on technique are widely circulated in an AMF Bowling Tip booklet.

Use the right ball; make sure the thumb fits snugly—yet slides off easily. Don't handicap yourself with too heavy a ball.

Keep your eyes on target. Put the ball in motion—outward and downward—as you take your first step on approach.

Keep shoulders parallel to the foul line during the entire delivery.

Don't try for a big hook or a speed ball. Accuracy is the key to high scores. Work on those spares, too. You can hit 190 without a strike—if your second ball does the job for you!

Bowling instruction has its limitations. One young lady, who just couldn't get her approach down right despite expert instruction, confided to her friend:

"My instructor is just too handsome. I can't take my eyes off of him!"

New Kind Of Chicken Shoot

A one time "Three for a Buck" Chicken Shoot, the McHenry Sportsmen's Club's answer to inflation, will highlight their shoot program on Sunday, December 11. Shooting will start at 11 a.m.

Three tender young chickens will be won by every five-man squad, a fifty-percent increase in prize value. Each squad may choose to let the highest scoring shooter win the three chickens, or they may compete in a 2 White Bird event. In this contest, two white targets are released from the trap at unknown intervals. Gunners who bag these birds win a chicken for each one broken, and the high gun takes the third fryer. Lower scoring shooters prefer this latter event because it puts them on an equal footing with the better shooters, with luck counting for more than skill.

Also on the menu for prizes for devotees of the fowl-ing piece will be mallard ducks, turkeys, steaks, and shooting components.

Twenty-five bird practice rounds will be run all day for smooth-bore bangers who need the practice, or who enjoy shooting just for the fun of it.

Trap chairman Wallace Manz pointed out that the attending public enjoys the same privileges and prices at the club's traps as do members, at every Saturday afternoon practice session, as well as at the twice monthly prize shoots, and they are always welcome.

Hot refreshments and shells will be on tap in the warm clubhouse on the west side of Pistakee Bay. From the east visitors will use Route 134 Big Hollow Road, to its eastern terminus, then a right turn.

a needed vacation in Hot Springs, his captain, Benrie Puig, 181-172-179—532, led Cole's Tavern to a pair of wins over Shady Rest Tavern.

Ron Rabas continues to roll 183-177-204—564 to lead the league, but his team dropped two games to Frank Everhart 224-180-165—569 and the Johnson's Petite Lake Resort.

Paty's Lounge is back on the winning track, taking two from Kempf's Tavern.

Christmas Gifts & Where To Find Them

Maybe you know what you want but can't find it. Or maybe you're seeking frantically for an idea of what to buy that hard-to-please person.

Either way, maybe we can help you in your search by telling you some of the items that Antioch stores have in stock this year, all great for Christmas-giving to someone.

We can't give the prices on all these items, but we can say we found Antioch prices highly competitive. Maybe you'll find some of the items on sale somewhere at a special low price, but it's doubtful at this time of year. More likely, you'll find many of the items sold out at stores in larger cities.

FOR HIM

If he's a do-it-yourselfer, V & S Hardware has everything in tools, from screw drivers to drills, sanders, power saws, saber saws, bench grinders and vises. There's tool boxes so that he can keep those precious tools stored in order, too. And if you don't know a sander from a power saw, the friendly clerk can help you with a little advice on your particular man's needs.

If he's a sportsman, V & S has the equipment he needs. Fishing supplies, including rods, guns, shells, and what have you.

Maybe an electric shaver or a cordless electric shoe polisher are just what he needs to brighten his Christmas morning. V & S has them, too. Also radios, tape recorders, or record players. And if he likes gadgets, how about an electric clothes brush.

FOR HIM, FROM GIBBS & JENSEN

Clothes and sports equipment for the man on your list are available in variety at Gibbs & Jensen. For every day wear, shirts in every fabric and style. Flannel, denim, velours, sueded, and the Ponderosa shirts and also jackets. Sweaters, both cardigan and pullover, in all the styles the college boys favor, to styles for Dad.

Hunting clothes, and the insulated clothes made especially for the ice fisherman but worn by nearly everyone who spend much time outside. They're pretty nice even for lounging on a cold winter evening.

Whatever his favorite sport, Gibbs & Jensen have the equipment for it: Golf clubs, balls, bags; fishing equipment; everything for archery; bowling balls and bags; basketballs, baseballs and mitts; equipment for the ice fisherman, and tennis equipment.

For anyone who likes camping out, or even for the motorist who contemplates a motor trip in the winter, a space blanket is something new and very practical. A blanket, size 56" x 84" which folds into a compact bag which would slip into your glove compartment, it is made of thermal material which keeps in your body heat and will keep you warm indefinitely. And strong enough to hold considerable weight without tearing.

FOR HIM, FROM BARNSTABLE'S DEPT. STORE

If he likes clothes, you can find a gift for him at Barnstable's Dept. Store.

Gloves, shirts, sweaters, slacks, sports coats, plus wallets and cuff link and tie pin sets are on tap.

In sweaters, a plentiful supply of mohairs and brushed wools. In shirts, the paisleys are a favorite of the young men; also the "wide tracks", solid color with a stripe.

Velour shirts are another favorite, as are the Ponderosas.

The selection of slacks at Barnstable's ranges from wash pants for the student to Sta-Press and other dress slacks. Some white Levi's are available, a scarce item. Men's and boy's winter jackets and sports coats for men come in variety.

AT KASS MEN'S STORE

From gimmicks to everything for the well-dressed man, Kass has it. White shirts, knits, CPO shirts, Ponderosas, velour, sports shirts.

In sweaters, Italian imports, some in suede trimmed wool, are a plush gift. Slacks, sports coats, sweaters in every color and fabric will delight the man who likes good clothes. Narrow brimmed hats now come in wool fabrics, and some hats in artificial furs are great for frigid weather.

Paisley ties are popular, and there's a wide range of tie pins and clips, alone or in cuff link sets, to go with them.

Kass' has a range of men's colognes and other toilet articles, including the Jade East. Some gimmicks, for the man who has everything: a musical decanter; a musical cigarette box, which dispenses cigarettes while it plays a tune; a range of tricky lighters, including a golf ball, and a long-handled shoe buffer, battery operated.

FOR HIM, FROM THE SHOE BOX

For relaxing, The Shoe Box has a wide variety of slippers for Dad or the younger male. If he'd like boots, there are fifteen styles to choose from. For days when just a pair of rubbers is enough, there's a new kind that looks just like a pair of loafers. And if you don't know his size, just give him a Florsheim shoe certificate and let him pick his own.

AT HAHN'S JEWELRY SHOP
Any man who works at a desk, at home or at work, will appreciate one of the nice desk sets at Hahn's. Or a gift of British Sterling cologne. Or a Scheafer pen or pencil.

If he's very special, you can find a watch in any price range at Hahn's, from Timex to the high-priced brands. Or a travel clock, if he's on the road quite a bit, could solve your gifting problems. Cuff link and tie pin or clip sets, can also be found in a range of prices, at Hahn's. Rings for men, if he likes jewelry, are available from $4.95 up. And electric shavers. Or perhaps a lighter would be just what he needs.

AT REEVES

If he's a cigar smoker, buy him a box of his favorite brand at Reeves Drug Store. Lighters are also available, and cosmetic sets for men. If he likes gadgets, or is a devotee of health foods, he might like the Mince-O-Matic, available only at Walgreens.

AT WILTON'S

Anything he might like in the line of electric appliances can be found at Wilton's. Electric shavers, tape recorders, stereo tapes, radios. How about a record by his favorite recording artist?

A gadget to delight boys from 8 to 80 are the walkie talkies. They come in every price range, and can be really useful.

AT KING'S DRUGS

You can find all the little stocking stuffers for men or women at King's. Cosmetics, manure sets, cigars, cigarettes, lighters. If you're really stuck for a small gift to please a man, you can find something to please him at King's.

Set Up Valerie Percy Scholarship Fund

The Valerie Percy Scholarship Fund has been established for college scholarships for needy residents of Illinois.

Officers of a newly formed foundation for the Valerie Percy Scholarship Fund are: Columnist Irv Kupcinet, president; Reverend William Lea, Christ Church of Winnetka, Columnist Sydney J. Harris, Peter G. Peterson, president, Bell & Howell Company, and Calvin Fentress of the Percy Campaign Staff, vice presidents; and Sharon L. Percy, secretary and treasurer.

Kupcinet said, "Many many friends have wanted to honor Valerie's memory and have suggested a scholarship fund. Valerie had devoted much of her time to culturally deprived families. Also she was going to continue her college education in graduate study. The Percy family is extremely pleased that a living tribute of this kind has been established for Valerie and that Sharon was honored to serve as the family representative on the Scholarship Foundation. As of this time, $26,175.00 has been contributed or pledged."

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation, 990 Grove St., Evanston, will screen candidates. Those desiring to apply for these scholarships should take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test in February of 1967.

Those wishing to contribute may make out checks to the Valerie Percy Scholarship Fund and address them to Errett Van Nice, Senior Vice President, Harris Trust & Savings Bank, 115 W. Monroe St., Chicago. Arthur Andersen & Company has agreed to serve as auditors.

Gigantic Fun Fair At Grass Lake School

Have you noticed the clever posters around town? They advertise the Grass Lake School Fun Fair to be held Sunday, Dec. 11, and are the result of a poster contest at the school.

The Fun Fair will run from 2 to 5 p.m. Dec. 11.

The posters were made by 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade students at Grass Lake School. The PTA sponsored the contest and the Grand Prize winner was Kerry Shute, 6th grade. Other winners are Karen Johnson, Kim Shute and Vicky Morgan, 8th grade; JoAnne Robis, Kathy Kaminsky and Karen Yopp, 7th grade; Kerry Shute, Kurt Johnson and Pat Ludford, 6th grade; Bill Beese, Lauren Pogose and Dieder Mohnick, 5th grade.

Mrs. Jane Craner, art teacher at Antioch High School, judged the contest. The main feature of this year's Fun Fair will be a gigantic auction for adults, conducted by Herman Behm. The auction will start at about 2:30 p.m. Items to be auctioned off will include new merchandise, antiques, and many articles of interest.

There will also be games, booths for all ages, a ribbon demonstration to help you in turning out pretty Christmas packages, a stuffed toy walk, and a Key Club Plate lunches and sandwiches will be served in the cafeteria at reasonable prices.

Joan Pitner is in charge of the event, with the assistance of Bernice Seymour, PTA president, and all the room mothers at the school.

Everyone is invited. There is no admission charge.

Icebreaking Made Easy On Great Lakes Cutter

The U. S. Coast Guard is launching an experiment which may well simplify the gigantic task of icebreaking in the Great Lakes each year.

Two new systems are currently being installed on the cutter Sundew, a buoy tender which also operates as an icebreaker during the winter and spring months.

One of these experimental systems is a vibrator placed in the Sundew's forward hold, where it will produce vibrations at the rate of 900 cycles per second. Coast Guard engineers believe that these vibrations will help free the ship should it be trapped by ice.

Consisting of four half-pipes installed around the ship's hull, the other system is designed to allow the Sundew to pump water over the ice around its hull, thus lubricating it and making it easier to break. In addition, this water will remove the snow cover on the ice which makes it much harder to break because it creates friction with the ship's side. Drawn from the lake, the water will be pumped through the system at a rate of 2,200 gallons per minute.

These systems—the effectiveness of which will be monitored by instruments placed along the Sundew's hull—are installed on the ship at the Sturgeon Bay Ship and Drydock Co., Sturgeon Bay, Wis., at the request of the U. S. Coast Guard Yard, Curtis Bay, Md., which developed them for Coast Guard use.

Last year, units of the Ninth Coast Guard District, which encompasses the Great Lakes, performed 364 icebreaking missions, cruising 22,248 miles and being underway for 5,210 hours.

Sports & Spectator Furs At Fashion Show

Fur fashions from Harriot's Imperial Furs salon on the Imperial Mink Ranch, Wadsworth, highlighted the weekly fashion show represented at Chicago's Continental Plaza Hotel Tuesday.

Spotlighted in the fashion parade were specially designed furs for active sports and spectator wear created by the famous Ritter Bros. of New York and carried exclusively by the Wadsworth shop, and custom created mink jackets and coats styled from Imperial Ranch pelts.

Operators of the unique fur salon are Harriot and Paul Serdar, of Old Mill Creek and Wadsworth.

Special Xmas Stamp A Masterpiece

Every envelope bearing the 1966 Christmas postage stamp will be a masterpiece, Postmaster Joseph Wolf said today.

The special holiday stamp is a replica of a painting by Hans Memling, Flemish master of the Renaissance Era, now hanging in the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C.

The stamp, which is now on sale at the Antioch post office was designed from the central portion of Memling's oil, "Madonna and Child with Angels" which was painted on wood about 1480.

Postmaster Wolf noted that use of the stamp for the sending of greeting cards assures first-class handling. That means the cards will be forwarded if the addressee has moved or will be returned if there is a return address.

This is the fifth in a series of holiday stamps and the Postal Service expects it to be another best seller. The initial print order was for one billion, two hundred million stamps.

The Postmaster estimated that 125,000 of the stamps will be sold locally.

The stamp design was unanimously recommended to Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien by the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee which passes on all stamps.

Appoint Chairmen of Cerebral Palsy March

Women who will serve as chairman of the "53-minute March" on cerebral palsy for this area have been announced by Arthur Rubloff, chairman of the Board of United Cerebral Palsy of Greater Chicago. They are Mrs. Arthur Deutch, 7827 Westwood Place, Gurnee, and Mrs. Stanley B. Pusken, Rt. 3, Box 597A, Lake Villa.

The annual march will take place Sunday, Jan. 15.

Electronic Lab Speeds Language Learning

Learning the languages of other lands and other peoples has become increasingly important as the speed of travel shrinks the world and more people travel abroad.

The Foreign Language department of Antioch Community High School has grown by leaps and bounds since 1960. In addition to the growing interest in learning foreign languages, the addition of the electronics laboratory to the Language department has boosted the interest of students.

The class room laboratory was added to the Spanish room in 1963. Student's seats are connected with head phones and the teacher has a console. She may speak directly to the student or listen to him repeating the lesson.

In 1964, the German room became electronic, and plans are underway for the Latin room to become electronic in 1967-68. French, added to the curriculum this year, will share the use of the equipment with the Latin students.

With the use of the recording equipment, also available, the students can listen to the correct pronunciations and can listen to their own voices and compare the pronunciation.

In addition to the classroom laboratories, there is a Listening Center in the library, where students can get additional oral practice.

All the equipment is heavily used by the 376 students studying languages. The Spanish room is available for the pupils to use during study hall or home room periods. These are monitored by teachers and students. The student monitors also act as tutors to help those who need assistance.

The monitors and tutors are Kathy Mayerle, 465 Edgewood Drive; Kerrie Ellis, 1410 Ravine Crest; Lake

Villa; Joe Androla, Rt. 3, Antioch; Roger Bocox, Lake Villa; Bob Mitchell, 315 Maplewood Drive, Antioch; Robert DeYoung, Rt. 2, Lake Villa; Lark Hawkins, Rt. 2, Antioch; Gary Aerne, 1312 Forest Drive, and Patricia Denman, Rt. 2, both of Lake Villa; Glenna Burns, Windsor Drive; Bruce Muir, Rt. 4; Tim Beushausen, 421 Maplewood Drive; Diane Staggs, Windsor Drive; James Polley, 998 Osmond; Debbie Strom, Windsor Drive and Pat Gorlitz, 648 Gary Drive, all of Antioch; and George Schwerin, Allendale School, Lake Villa.

The members of the foreign Language Department are Kenneth Raymond, French; Mrs. Carol Maples, Spanish; Nicholas Ross, German; and Mrs. Fern Tate, Latin. Mrs. Tate is also acting chairman of the department.

Open House At First National Bank

Nearly four thousand people visited the First National Bank at its Grand Opening in the new location last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Officers and personnel of the bank gave the public conducted tours, acquainting them with the new facilities and up-to-date equipment of the bank. The TV drive-up window, the first and only one in Lake County, attracted hundreds of people who enjoyed seeing themselves on television.

Dozens of floral ensembles sent with congratulations for the occasion gave a festive air to the bank's newly remodeled interior. Refreshments and souvenir gifts were available in abundance for everyone.

The Grand Opening came as a crowning event to the long and distinguished career of Edwin J. Sletten, former vice president and cashier of the bank for twenty-two years. He retired a short time before the grand opening. It was also a tribute to Elmer E. Rentner, a director of the bank and an employee in the loan department for more than eight years.

The new administrative staff, consisting of Laverne Woods, executive vice president; Walter Daniels, vice president; and Dale Starkey, cashier, welcomed visitors with the help of the bank personnel. They were assisted in their hosting by the board of directors and their immediate families. Members of the board of directors are Russell E. Barnstable, president; Edwin J. Sletten and Elmer E. Rentner, vice presidents; Mrs. William E. Schroeder and William Schroeder III, daughter and grandson of C. K. Anderson, founder of the bank; Edmund F. Vos and W. C. Petty.

The new home of the First National Bank was remodeled by John Conville of Antioch, who also designed the TV drive-up window.

At the close of the Open House, a drawing was held for many valuable prizes. The following persons were winners: colored television set, Mrs. Luther Moore, Lake Villa; gas outdoor grill, Matthew J. Nolan, Antioch; record player, Marion Gier, Lake Villa; floor cleaner and buffer, Joseph J. Biegler, Zion; clock radio, R. W. Bausch, Gurnee; electric blanket, Kirk Dalgaard, Antioch; rod and reel, Richard Hahn, Trevor; electric can opener, Bernhard C. Andresen, Lake Villa; electric fry pan, C. Matus, Lake Villa; electric toaster, Mrs. Glenn Waller, Antioch; grandfather clock, Joey Sawyer, Wadsworth; and electric radio, Mrs. I. Likuold, Trevor.

President Russell Barnstable said that the board of directors was gratified with the tremendous number of friends that called to extend their appreciation and congratulations. "Certainly," he said, "the First National Bank board, through its expansion and improvement of banking facilities, has visibly expressed its faith in the continued business growth of the Antioch community and all Lake County."

Bank director Ed Vos relaxes while he visits with friends.

Postmaster Joe Wolf, Dave Cain and Dale Starkey find a nook to discuss the Grand Opening of the First National Bank.

We Extend Our Thanks...

We'd like to say "THANK YOU" to all our friends and neighbors who visited us during our Open House. Your presence contributed so much to our pleasure. We hope you enjoyed your visit with us and will make a habit of dropping in often.

The Bank Board is overwhelmingly grateful to the many business and banking firms, as well as individuals, for the host of floral ensembles and various other types of congratulatory expressions which so enhanced the beauty of the entire occasion.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

"The thing that makes newspaper advertising so much more effective than other forms, and so much more profitable per dollar spent is that the newspaper is always there for the reader's convenience. We'd guess that two-thirds of the people reading this were not at home today. You were at your job, visiting, shopping, off to a church meeting, bridge... anyway, you weren't home. As a result, you missed a few phone calls, favorite programs, salesmen... but you didn't miss your newspaper, because here it is, awaiting your convenience. You can sit back and relax, read what's going on, and if you want to save something, you can clip it out."—Highland News Leader.

Chairman (24c)

DIRTY CAR, MORE ACCIDENT PRONE? Drivers of clean cars have fewer accidents! One expert reports that a dirty car creates a depressed, neurotic, accident-prone state of mind in the driver. The Lake County Safety Commission says, wash your car and drive defensively. Watch out for the other guy. He may be driving a dirty car.

The Lake County Safety Commission says a tiger in the tank is no asset if there is a donkey at the wheel.

A practical gift, That's practically perfect

To some, a practical gift is as welcome as a rainy weekend.
To others, it's just the right answer.

Here's a practical gift, that's practically perfect:
an A&P Gift Certificate.

A handsome certificate with a mailing envelope, available in all A&P stores all year long.
Offered in $5 and $10 denominations, these gift certificates will be honored in any A&P store in the United States.

When you think about it, practically anyone who buys food would welcome it.

And here's the best part—no one can ever get too many.
